

Hinerava sponsors the Orange County Pacific Symphony 2016 Annual Gala

Irvine, CA - On Saturday May 7th, the Orange County Pacific Symphony Annual Gala, the largest fundraiser of the year benefiting the Symphony's award-winning artistic and education programs, took place at the elegant Hotel Irvine. This thrilling evening of music, dancing, entertainment and fine dining included a pearl show of Hinerava's exclusive collection.

Arriving in the midst of a spellbinding world of tropical delights for the Symphony's 2016 Gala theme, "Je t'aime Tahiti, Some Enchanted Evening," 400 were magically transported to a lush Tahitian paradise. Models adorned in stunning Hinerava Tahitian pearl jewelry stood on pedestals for all to admire. Hinerava sponsored all of the jewelry on display, including the exquisite "pearl show," as well as those worn by top gala supporters.

The lavish evening of South Pacific delicacies, luxury auction items and mesmerizing entertainment proved to be a great success, raising $1.3 million for the Symphony's artistic and education programs.

The sentimental evening paid tribute to the Symphony's Principal Pops Conductor Richard Kaufman, celebrating his 25th anniversary with the orchestra.
